Gentle Outlanders, both far and near, unto thine ear come the words of your Sovereign Lord and Lady.

It is with a saddened heart that We begin preparations for the retirement of Our good Baroness of Caerthe, Mistress Mary Blackthorn. We offer Our gratitude for her long-standing service to Our Kingdom. Any gentles wishing to succeed the Coronet of Caerthe need first consult the requisitions laid out by Kingdom Law, and then submit a letter of candidacy to be reached by Our Hands no later than Sunday, the 14th day of February. We have much faith that those who are chosen to follow Our Baroness Mary will Walk the Way that she has lighted before Us.

At this time, We also call to those gentles who find the courage in their hearts and wish to compete in Our Crown Tournament. Letters of intent to fight in Our List must be received by Our Hands in full accordance with Kingdom Law by Sunday the 14th day of February. Any prospective entrants who are not members of any Order of Peerage must also submit a corresponding letter of support from a Peer of Our Realm. We remind Our Warriors to take due consideration both of the responsibilities of the Crown and of the importance of honorable combat during the tournament. Finally, all couples who intend to vie for succession must be aware of the necessity of ambassadorial politics. As the Outlands prepares for Battlemoor, it shall be expected that at least one member of the victorious couple attend Gulf Wars in order to raise enthusiasm for what promises to be an astounding inter-kingdom event. Because of the importance of this role, Our Generous Kingdom Coffers will support the travel expenses accrued by Our Heirs.

Though We find peace at home, Our Neighbors cry for WAR! They believe the bright sun will lead them to victory, but in the end, their vision will be blinded by the glint of Our Steel. The twilight of the Sun-King is upon Us, and when the dusk falls upon the battlefield King Eduard will sparkle no more. Though war points are banished from site this year, victory is still within reach. We ask for the aid of every gentle, be ye warrior, artisan or server, to commit your blade, craft or time for the betterment of the Outlands and the enjoyment of all.

It is with much gratitude for the generosity of the Outlands, We remain your Stag King and Queen,

Bela & Anna

Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings,

I would like to thank all the officers of the Kingdom for your Domesday reports last month. I appreciate all your work on this project. I would like to announce that al-Barran will be hosting Crown Tournament next month, and the Shire of Plattefordham will be the site for Coronation in May. I look forward to seeing old acquaintances and new faces at these upcoming events.

Once again War is upon us and I look forward to a great time at Estrella this month. Please help the Kingdom War effort wherever you are able. Remember, many hands make light work. I will be in attendance at the following events this month: Estrella War from Wednesday, February 10th in the evening to Sunday, February 14th, and possibly Kingdom Heralds and Scribes in Caerthe the 27th. If you would like to discuss any issues with me in person, find me at one of these fine events and I will be happy to talk with you.
YIS,
Master James David

White Stag

I would like to invite one and all to Outlands Heralds and Scribes, to be held February 27th in Caerthe - there will be fun and classes aimed at every level. This event should also be the investiture of the next White Stag Principal Herald, to be named soon but not soon enough for the newsletter deadline.

Since my next-to-last letter, the November LoAR has been issued. The November Cover Letter contains several administrative reminders. Laurel is cutting the commentary period at Laurel-level by one month, making the submissions process even faster. For those who haven't noticed (due to OH deadlines), LoARs are also currently being issued much sooner after the meetings. Laurel also reminded everyone about the "new" Administrative Handbook, published in January 2009. Laurel is also extending the Grandfather Clause regarding the use of registered names by the branch they live in or are associated with (please see the CL for details). Finally, Palimpsest, Laurel's Rules Herald, is requesting feedback from the general populace regarding the heraldic submissions process and the standards for names and armory: http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/GLJZDDZ is the link for the survey. I urge you all to fill it out and contribute to making heraldic registration work better for everyone. You can view Cover Letters and LoARs at: http://heraldry.sca.org/loar and track Outlandish submissions at: http://submissions.outlandsheralds.org/

As this is my last letter as White Stag, I would like to thank those who have helped me during my tenure. First, I could not have done this job without my kingdom staff heralds, most especially Llywus ap Alan, Kit Devereux, Tyr von Wolfsburg, Kymma Godric, AEdheluulf munec, and Randal Carrick, who collectively have helped the College and myself beyond measure. Second, the work of the many local heralds and those who serve without office should not go unnoticed or unthanked - I saw what you did there and thank you. Third, I would thank my predecessor Sorcha MacLeod, my emergency deputy Omar Mohammud Mirzazadeh, and the kingdom scribe Ymanya Murray for their behind the scenes help and advice. Beyond these fine heralds, my thanks also to all the Crowns who have trusted me to carry Their voices and be Their herald and the people of this kingdom whom I have had the honor of serving.

Lady Marie de Blois

Earl Marshal

Short notice on war but REMEMBER to check your green and blue cards.

Two things about our rules regarding fighting - First, the rules both at the SCA level and the kingdom level are to be followed. This does not mean that you can argue with the local knight marshal about how you can ignore the rule and "take full responsibility" for any injuries. The rules are there to provide a minimum set of armor standards and conduct standards that MUST be followed. All fighters are to follow the SCA and kingdom rules - period.

The second point - it does not state that you must have a yearly physical to fight. A person must decide upon the merit of a yearly physical. I have one and I strongly encourage people to have one. I know that some cannot afford a doctor visit. I just want to state that those pains or aches that do not go away like they used to may be a sign that you should heed. Take care of yourself and keep healthy.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Archer General

War is just around the corner, and we need your help. Please, if you are going to war this year take some time to help out at the archery range. I will not be able to make it this year (darn work!!) so Earl Mika will be running the Outlands part this year. As you may have heard, this year there are NO war points and it is only the Outlands and Atenveldt as the two main groups. What this has done is to make the archery there even better than it has ever been. The number of shoots for you all to shoot at is staggering. You all will come home with sore arms and smiles on your faces.

The next thing is that the Royal archery tournament will be held at Battlemoor this year. This is the 4th of July weekend. A couple of things about the Royal Archer tournament this year. It will be held at only one location. We will not be splitting it up between two spots again. Second, we will be breaking with tradition this year: ANY authorized archer NO MATTER THEIR RANK will be allowed into the Royal Archery tournament. The only thing you will need to be is authorized. You must be authorized by at least June 30th. Mika is the current Royal Archer, and he has come up with an incredible shoot this year. It will be run on Saturday at the event and it will be an all day shoot, in the morning all archers will shoot and then in the afternoon the final 8 will shoot for the title. This shoot will also be open to all other archers from other kingdoms, so this is your chance to shoot against other kingdom archers. In the coming weeks Earl Mika will be making many announcements about this shoot.

Also at Battlemoor, we will have the ranges, yes ranges open every day from Wednesday all the way to Sunday (closing only for the Royal Archer shoot). We have come up with tons of shoots. We will be having moving targets, long range shooting, short and medium ranges. You name it, we are probably doing it. We will be needing some marshal help at this event. If you are interested, please let me know.

One last thing, sometime in March we will be launching the new scorekeeping site. We are currently doing extensive testing on it; this is to make sure that when we open it up to all it will run smoothly. This site will allow all archers to go look not only at their scores, it will allow them to look at other scores, and when they need to renew their green cards. They will be able to track their ranks. This is a nice program and I am looking forward to seeing it open up to all.

THCord Forrester

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands,

Estrella War is almost here. If you are attending with minors, please volunteer at the youth center and look at the youth web pages for important information and necessary paperwork. The http://www.estrellawar.org/Registration/AttendingWithMinors.aspx and http://www.estrellawar.org/Activities/ChildrensActivities.aspx web pages provide links to information including:

- Attending With Minors (required minors paperwork, curfew and guidelines that parents and youth must follow)
- Minors Attending Without Their Parents (notarized paperwork required and links to forms)
- Atenveldt Policy for Addressing Transgressions by Minors
- Minors Curfews and Parental Responsibilities
- Plans and hours for the Children/Youth Centers at Estrella (ages 0-4 years and 5-9 years) and youth classes (ages 10-17)

In January I sent to the Outlands Discussion List, a document that I created with all of the important information from these pages.

I know that many Arts and Sciences events and classes are planned in the coming months in our Kingdom. Our youth want to take your classes and participate in the arts, so let them know in your publicity that they are welcome to take the adult classes. Please contact Lady Morwyn at outlandspageacademy@yahoo.com if you want to create a Class-in-a-Bag for the Page Academy or teach a Page Academy class at your local event or fighter practice. If you have questions regarding Outlands youth programs or society or kingdom minors policies, wish to teach a youth class or lead a youth activity at Battlemoor, want a copy of the Estrella War youth information document or wish to be involved in supporting our youth in any way, please contact me at krege@aps.edu.

THLady Jayne Barber

Minister of the Lists

I will soon be stepping down as Minister of the Lists for this great and glorious Kingdom. It has been my honor to have served this Kingdom in this capacity and I look forward to doing what I can in other areas. I have received the letters of intent along with Their Majesties and Sir Dennis and I look forward to Their acceptance of my recommendation for replacement.

Thank you to all of the men and women who have served as ministers of the lists for the various Baronies throughout the Kingdom for your help, your questions, your thoughts, your encouragement, and all that you have done and continue to do for your Barony and Kingdom. I look forward to working with you all in other capacities in the future. While I may be stepping down, I will still be here to answer any questions or offer assistance in any way I can.

Lady Searlaith inghean Rotbeard

Greetings,

As the new President of the SCA, Inc., I wish to extend a hand in greeting and a promise to serve our Society with honor and professionalism. The SCA is indeed "our Society." Though we may enjoy different aspects of our game, it is our common enjoyment of these endeavors that make the SCA "our Society." I look forward to meeting many of you through the course of my three-year term.

I've been a member of the SCA since 1992, in the kingdoms of Meridies and then Gleann Abhann. The SCA has provided me with many challenges and opportunities for which I am grateful. I bring to the office of the President years of experience in the non-profit world, human resource development, and people and project management. During my three-year term, I will focus much of my time and attention on transparency, helping Society-level officers meet their goals, and ensuring that our Society is a safe and worthwhile place to play.

Please join me in expressing deep gratitude to Patrick Anderson for dedicating more than three years to serving our Society as President. Patrick's good stewardship and professional skills have served the Society very well.

Yours In Service,
Denise Ceeson-Provost
President
SCA, Inc.

Attention! People of the Outlands! It is time to become what you aren't. That's right -- in a game of fantasy comes the truly fantastic. Feast of Fools is the time when you can come as you aren't. Try that persona you keep debating about. Try your hand at fighting—that's right, you can even try fighting. However, the fighting isn't what you would expect from a normal SCA event: No armor is needed. Before the feast, for all who are interested, there will be a dramatic food fight featuring boffer style food. For the more faint of heart, there will be games and other foolery to keep you well entertained. Come join us for a day of relaxation and fun, free of the usual perfection to which we hold ourselves and puns. What is Feast of Fools without puns? Bring out your best (or worst) puns for the chance to be the Lord or Lady of Misrule.

At the end of the day, Mistress Elaina and her staff have a delicous and fun feast planned for us. Prepare for an array of culinary delights to please the eye, palate and your sense of humor. If you have any dietary restrictions or questions please contact Mistress Elaina. Seating for feast is limited. Get your reservations in early. Feast MUST be PRE-PAID. FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

The Work of Sir Francis Bacon

by Sayyid Suleiman ibn Da'ud ibn Sahl al-Qalqashandi

One of the more influential people in Elizabethan England was Sir Francis Bacon. Renowned for his Essays, Bacon was also an Attorney General and Lord Chancellor of England. Additionally Bacon, also made contributions to cryptology that would in fact lead some people to conclude that he wrote some of Shakespeare's plays!

Bacon had an interest in ciphers for quite some time prior to the publication of De Dignitate et Augmentis Scientiarum (1623). In fact, during his prosecution of the Earl of Sommerset for treason, Bacon claimed that the accused used ciphers for his communications "a process reserved for Kings and Princes in their affairs of State." But it was the 1623 publication that will serve as the basis for this month's puzzle and also served to promote the Shakespeare connection.

Within Scientiarum, Bacon described a somewhat complex method that combined simple substitution ciphers with steganography (the art of hiding communications in the open). Bacon proposed to first assign each letter of the alphabet a combination of 'a's or 'b's. So for example, the letter 'F' would be represented as 'aabab'. In modern terms, we would assign each letter a five bit number. After assigning each letter a five character value, a fake message would be written that had five times as many letters as the secret message. Then when writing the phony message, each letter would be set using one of two typefaces. In other words, each 'a' value of the encoded message would use the first typeface and the each 'b' value would use the second typeface. The recipient of the message would then have to identify each letter based upon the typeface (hoping nothing had smeared or become obscured) and translate it to an 'a' or a 'b' before substituting the plaintext letter for the five 'a'/'b' characters.

This month's puzzle will be the five character substitution cipher described above without hiding it through different typefaces. The different typefaces, however, still are key to the Shakespeare connection. In the early 1900s, Elizabeth Wells Gallup claimed that a message was hidden in the first edition of Shakespeare's works published by Isaac Jaggard in 1623. She claimed to have found it because of the different typefaces that were used. Although most scholars now discredit the claim, it has led to other investigations into possible ciphers in both Bacon's and Shakespeare's works.

Ah but that fellow Outlanders, is encryption for another day.
